Jolt Trust

Since its founding in 1983, the Journey of a Lifetime Trust, or Jolt Trust for short, has been making a difference in the lives of young people who are disabled, ill or dealing with abuse.

Run by volunteers, Jolt Trust has given people age 14 to 21, the opportunity to travel the world. Every two years, the group organizes expeditions to various locations. This allows these young people the opportunity to experience something they may not normally have had a chance to see.

Past trips taken by Jolt trust include: Siberia/ Mongolia, the Australian Outback, South America, Canada, Along the Silk Road, Alaska, Central America, The Middle East, Indochina, New Zealand, India/ Bhutan and a trip across the Andes.

Jolt Trust is a registered charity out of London. Its president is HM Queen Noor of Jordan. Its patron is Sir Ranulph Fiennes. Some vice presidents include: Dame Joan Bakewell, Bear Grylls, David Hill and Dame Naomi Mansell.
